MANY PUTTO DEATH

Eight Thousand Chinese Rebels Are Slain

FIVE HUNDRED BURNED ALIVE

Harrible Butchery of Captured Insurgents by the Imperial Forces-Churches Used for Forts.

SAN PRANCISCO, March 28.-According to advices just received from Shanghai the bloody engagements re-cently between imperial troops and rebels in northern China resulted in the slaughter of several thousand rebels. The imperial army lost only five killed and forty-five wounded Over 5,000 rebels were put to death with the sword and 500 actually barned

A number of engagements are re-perted. A body of insurgents numbering 360 was overtaken by imperialists at a place 60 miles from Kulun and over 100 of them were killed and three leaders made prisoners. In a second engagement ever fifty of the enemy were put to the sword, and the remainder were obliged to retire to a pawashop, the strong walls of which made it an admirable lace to defend. The imperialists close ly invested the building, and killed ever 130 of the inmates. Intelligence later reached the imperialists camp that a force of the enemy comprising 100 cavalry and 800 infantry had ar-rived with the object of soming to the rescue of their confederates. They were attacked in front and rear by the imperial forces, and lost 600 mon during the battle.

Another detachment of rebels was posted at Meiyaokoutze, to which place the imperialists continued their march. The rebel detachment aumbered about 100, of whom sixty were killed and twenty made prisoners, among the latter being the se-called leader of the vanguard, Li Hung Tas, who was instantly decapitated.
A still larger force of the enemy was posted in the Chien Chang district, where they had an encampment, with your fitted up in loopholes of the wall jurrounding the villages. Churches the new creed served as outposts of the rebel army. An suclaught was made upon their position and after an engagement lasting two hours 800 out of a lotal of 1,400 were put to the sword. About 500 of the rest were burned ilive, and, including stragglere, it is atimated that not less than 1,000 of be enemy were killed on this coose A great number of the adherents of the hew creed were captured, including hree leaders, who were instantly de-
